

Life, etc.

Growing up isn't always growing old
Time to time you gotta learn to break the mold
Life comes in on the wings of a dream
Differences lie when the hidden things come to be seen

Chorus:

Cause I'm talking about life, etc
Maybe you know one thing or two
I'll ask you for a simple answer
I'll you give are confusing clues

Whatever happened to things that made sense
Up and vanished like a care in the wind
Yesterday I received a letter (written in)
Black and white and in all shades of gray
Simply stating when you sign on the line
You're signing your life away
One letter at a time

Chorus

Bridge:

What difference exists there between
The past the future and all of my dreams
Its to the point I wish I could say
I'd go back in a minute hour or one day
