

Simple Little Love Song

lay down i'm coming back to bed pull the sheets up over our heads roll over, close your pretty eyes through the darkness they'll somehow seek out mine

chorus

baby babe can't you see i'm addicted to you like a fish needs the sea i can't write you a sonnet, an act, or a play just a simple little love song for you today sun sun go away send the rains comin back my way one more minute with my angel girl on a monday morning i'd take over the world
