

Sviggumpower (Drew's Story)

With April's rain
You dulled the pain
I do remember
That bright-eyed smile
A rocket across the galaxies
That came right back and hit me

Bright sided moon
Flower in bloom
Never letting Earth's pain
Darken up her day
Not like much could anyway

Time I don't spend smiling
Is time better spent with you
And when we're together
There's not much else to do

Chorus

She always said
You miss every shot that you don't take
And time is nothing
Without the people that you make it with
Even when your
Cups empty you can spit in it
True story
Well that is what she said
True story

Whole bodied laughter
Shaking up the rafters
I look up
And recover
Her hand holding
Out to me

Like gravity
She draws in me
But never
Pulls me down
Holding me up
Telling me
Things'll just get better

Bridge

Time this last year
Has been such a blur
But its all so much clearer
When I'm looking back on her
We weren't afraid
Like kids we played
But that, is just like her
